

Donald Page Baucom (61)

12/11/1949 – 4/19/2011

Our beloved brother, uncle and friend, Donald “D” Page Baucom of Tampa, FL left his earthly vessel Tuesday, April 19, 2011. “D” was born in Troy, NC to the late Rudolph P. and Mae Murray (James) Baucom. He is survived by his beloved daughter, Katherine Page Baucom, Washington, DC; sister Sylla Sheppard-Hanger, her husband O.V. Hanger, Tampa, FL; brother David Baucom and wife, Helen of Hoffman, NC; nephew, Jim Baucom and wife, Heike; nephew David Baucom II; nieces Kristina Baucom, Julia and husband Darren Simington, Nyssa Hanger; grandnieces Mae Mine Baucom and Breana Simington; grandnephew Page Baucom and great-great nephew “Little D” (Devin) and many other relatives and friends who loved and adored him.

“D” was a Warrior of the Turtle Clan. He was a kind and loving man that never knew how special he was. He was known to all as a loyal brother, uncle and friend. His wisdom, sense of humor and love of nature were just a few of the many gifts that he imparted to us. The world was a better place because of him. He leaves a legacy of enriching the lives of all who knew him. He will be deeply missed but we take comfort in knowing that his spirit will remain with us forever. He wished to be best remembered for “a lovely daughter Katie, and as a kind loving caring individual who always had time for others”.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Free Tibet www.freetibet.org or the National Rifle Association www.nationalrifleassociation.com

Celebrations of his life to be held in Florida and NC to be announced.
